Promise, Research, CURES! Luncheon

Friday, June 23rd - 11:00 a.m. ■ Hilton Charlotte Center City

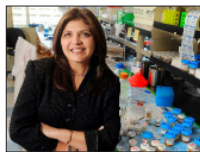

The Promise, Research, CURES! luncheon educates our community on the latest advancements in breast cancer research, and how local money raised impacts this cutting-edge research. This elegant plated lunch and presentation will demonstrate how significant research is being conducted right here in the Carolinas.

Keynote speakers, Lisa Carey, MD and Pinku Mukherjee, PhD, are at the forefront of helping save lives and providing critical treatment support to women and men in need.

Show your support and purchase your individual ticket ($25) or become a Research Ribbon Level Sponsor ($300) today!
